NO. RFP-17-01-OP

Report Assessing the Feasibility and Implications of Managed Retreat Strategies for Vulnerable Coastal Areas in Hawai'i

The subject RFP is hereby cancelled. Pursuant to HRS §103D-308, HAR §3-122-16.09, and HAR §3-122-96(a)(1)(D), the State has determined that it is in its best interest to cancel the subject solicitation.

The State remains committed to the goal of expanding cost-effective and time-efficient options to protect, accommodate, and retreat existing and future coastal development from coastal hazards (e.g., erosion and inundation). Key clarifications in the subject RFP were lacking which did not ensure the procurement process was competitive. We intend to clarify registration procedures and subsequently reissue the RFP. These clarifications are intended to support a competitive procurement process.

All businesses already registered for RFP-17-01-OP will be given the opportunity to compete on any resolicitation.
